

JUNE 21, 2011

The best of French fare in NSW

Le Pâtissier Chocolatier

This gorgeous patisserie has been baking traditional French treats since 1986. There's an endless array of tarts, cakes, biscuits and meringues, but it's difficult to go past a flaky, buttery croissant. Don't leave without picking up a little bag of artisan chocolates (the Grand Marnier truffle should not be missed).

